Autism Education Conference & Resource Fair

Keynote Speaker

Carolyn Dalglish

Carolyn's presentation will explain the role of sensory issues in the functioning of children with ASD and sensory dysregulation, and provide sensible strategies to support these students at home and at school. Carolyn is founder and owner of Systems for Sensory Kids, a model that bridges the gap between clinical support and practical in-home solutions for rigid, anxious and distracted kids. Her book, The Sensory Child Gets Organized is a Mom's Choice Gold Medal Winner. Books will be available for purchase on-site.
